

We would like to draw your attention to the following concert to be given by The Choir of Royal Holloway in London.

Baltic Discoveries
London Festival of Contemporary Church Music

Saturday 15 May 2010, 7.30pm

St Pancras Church, Euston Road, London, NW1 2BA

A concert of contemporary music from the Baltic states including pieces by Dubra, Miškinis, Sisask, Pärt and Vasks.

The Choir of Royal Holloway is developing a reputation for its exploration of new Baltic music having recently released a disc on Hyperion Records of music by Latvian composer Rihards Dubra to high critical acclaim. The choir's latest recording features the music of Lithuanian composer Vytautas Miškinis and will be released in the autumn.

There will be a pre-concert talk at 7.30pm led by Rupert Gough and composer Gabriel Jackson, followed by the concert at 8.00pm.

We would be delighted to see you on 15 May. Please visit www.lfccm.com for ticket information.

Midweek Music, our free Wednesday lunchtime concert series continues this term with music by Dubra, Vasks, Finzi, Britten, Gershwin and will finish the term with an exploration of the Italian Baroque. Visit our website for more details – www.chapelchoir.co.uk.
